European Legislators Gather
in Large Numbers for the Deliberations.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

RUSSELLS, Aug. 27.—[By Atlantic Cable.] An unusually large and representative delegation from the United States Congress is here to attend the Interparliamentary
Congress, which will open in the Palais de la Nation tomorrow.
The Parliaments of Europe are also numerously represented, the Italian Chamber of Deputies sending 100 delegates, the British House of Commons
sending thirty, and the French Chamber of Deputies twenty, while the German, Austrian and Hungarian houses
and the Parliaments of Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Belgium and Holland are represented by a number of conspicuous members. These include Herr von Plener, former Minister of Commerce of Austria and now president of the Mid-European Economic Union and Count Apponyi, leader of the Hungarian opposition.

Bates, Barfield, Dickerman, Moon
and Palmer of Pennsylvania; Boutelle and Fuller of Illinois, Goldfogle and Waldo of New York, McNary of Massachusetts, Norris of Nebraska, William Allen Smith of Michigan, Slayden
of Texas, Wood of New Jersey and Littlefield of Maine. Former Congressman Barrows of Massachusetts is also here.

The American group met this afternoon, and Representative Burke proposed the following resolution, which was adopted and carried to President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay:
"Assembled in the cause of international arbitration, we send you heartily greetings, and congratulate you upon your commendable and masterly
effort in the cause of peace, which,
regardless of the immediate results,
has challenged the admiration of the world."

The situation at Portsmouth was the chief subject of discussion among the delegates today, the sentiment being divided between commendation of the President's persistency and hope that the plenipotentiaries might reach
a compromise.

Mr. Bartholdi, chairman of the American delegates, reported to the Executive Council of the congress,
which met this afternoon under the presidency of M. Bernaert, the Belgian Minister of State and adviser to King Leopold.

Mr. Bartholdi presented a draft of a model arbitration treaty and a plan
for a permanent international parliament. With the aid of the English members, Philip Stanhope and W. R.
Cremer, the plans were referred to a special commission for final action, prior to the reassembling of
The Hague conference.

The discussion showed considerable opposition to arbitration on the part of the Italian and German delegates.

Assurances were given by other delegates that President Roosevelt's proposal of reassembling at The Hague
would be carried out at the conclusion of the Russo-Japanese War, and this was fortified by a letter from the President showing the positive-ness of the President's intention.

In the absence of Mr. Bartholdi,
the American delegation unanimously adopted a resolution for presentation to the Nobel prize for conferred on Mr. Bartholdi, in recognition of his efforts in behalf of arbitration.

PREACHERS WANTED CHICKEN.

A. F. Norton Closes His Dining-room at Indiana Wesleyan Conference Because of the "Kicks."

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Aug. 27.— [Exclusive Dispatch.] A. F. Norton,
who runs a grocery store at Marion,
"as Christ would run it," and makes a success of it, has tried the same thing
with a boarding-house at the camp meeting and has given up the job in despair, because the preachers who boarded with him kicked so strenuously on the service.

Norton had the dining-room privileges at the Wesleyan conference meeting at Fairmont. He ran the place
a few days, found the job unprofitable,
and today the dining-room was closed.
Preachers at the camp meeting objected because they were not served with fried chicken and because the system of waiting was not up to their standard.

Norton at his grocery sells goods
for cash; refuses to deliver to the houses of his patrons, pays his employees every night, and cuts prices to the bone.

Buenos Ayres to be Connected With

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

LONDON, Aug. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Americans are now taking a hand in what is probably one of the biggest schemes ever proposed for the development of South America.
The port of Buenos Ayres being too
shallow to admit big steamers, a concession was recently granted to Arturo Castano for the construction of a new port in the bay of Sambo-rombon, fifty miles toward the Atlantic along the River Plate.

The scheme involves an expenditure of about $8,000,000. Most of this has been subscribed in Paris.

for which has been undertaken by the firm of Willis & Manchester.
Separate subsidiary companies are now being formed for reclamation work, construction of a canal, and
township and a big system of railways,
which will radiate inland in all directions and connect existing lines
with Buenos Ayres.

BOER COLONY PROSPERING.

Gen. Snyman's Mexican Settlement Receiving Recruits from South Africa.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 27.— [Exclusive Dispatch.] The Boer
colony established in the Conchos Valley, Chihuahua, about two years ago, is prospering. The promoter was Gen. Snyman. He directs the colony. The land is rich, and is being brought to a high state of cultivation. A large crop of wheat and corn was grown this season, and the colonists will lay up money. The farms are well stocked with cattle, horses
and hogs.

Unlike other farmers in Mexico,
the Boers are doing without Mexican labor as much as possible. The colony is constantly receiving recruits from South Africa. The latest to arrive are W. J. Viljoen and wife, parents of Gen. Benjamin Viljoen.

MILITANT CATHOLICS.

Federation of All Religious Organizations Which Bear Arms is Broached.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—Plans for a federation of all Catholic military organizations in the United States were discussed at the convention of the Order of Catholic Knights of America today. L. J. Kadecki of Quincy, Ill., commander-in-chief of the order, was
the principal advocate of the idea, and speeches favoring
such a federation were made by the leading delegates.

For the purpose of sounding
the sentiment of members of the various military orders, a conference of officers of the organization will be called in a few days. This meeting will decide whether or not the orders are ready for amalgamation.

The convention will remain
in session today, and possibly tomorrow.

HAS JAPAN NERVE TO END CONFLICT?

Specially-summoned Council of Cabinet
and Elder Statesmen Meets.

Takahira, at Portsmouth, Unable to Proceed Until He Hears from Tokio, Asks Another Postponement—Tuesday Afternoon Selected and Afterward Date is Left Open—President Again Appeals to the Mikado.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

TOKIO, Aug. 27, 7:45 a. m.—[By Asiatic Cable.] A specially-summoned council of the Cabinet and Elder Statesmen is now in session, discussing the latest final phases of the peace conference at Portsmouth.

PEACE CONFERENCE POSTPONED.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
PORTSMOUTH (N. H.) Aug. 27.—The meeting of the peace conference tomorrow has been postponed until Tuesday at 4 o'clock p. m., at the request of Takahira, who explained they had received nothing yet from Tokio.

AGAIN APPEALS TO MIKADO.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 27, 1:10 a. m.—There is a persistent report that the President has made a new appeal to the Emperor of Japan.

MAY NOT MEET TUESDAY.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 28.—Although the public, tonight, was led to believe that the meeting was definitely adjourned until Tuesday, the Associated Press learned late tonight that, according to the joint understanding between Witte and Takahira, it was agreed that there would be no meeting until Japan's response to what may be regarded as Russia's ultimatum arrived. The meeting, therefore, may not be held until Wednesday or Thursday. Tokio now must decide, and judging from the tone of the Japanese press, the government must face a great deal of opposition at home if it yields further.

PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 27.—The life
of the peace conference today seems to hang by a thread, but the thread will not be broken tomorrow. At 10 o'clock a conference was held between Takahira and Witte in the latter's rooms in the Hotel Annex, the announcement of a postponement was made.

Witte explained to the Associated Press that Takahira had told him that no new instructions had reached him
from Tokio, and, fearing none might be received before the meeting scheduled for tomorrow afternoon, he had suggested the propriety of postponing
the meeting until Tuesday. To this Witte said he had readily assented.
TAKAHIRA ALMOST HOPELESS.
Takahira made the following statement to the Associated Press:
"Inasmuch as this conference was initiated by the friendly office of your President, after consultation we felt that we should be cautious about terminating its labors."

Pressed as to whether he regarded the situation as hopeless, Takahira said: "No, not hopeless, but almost hopeless."
This in itself, from one who has spoken always in the most guarded
fashion, is sufficient to show the desperateness of the situation. The real crisis in negotiations is at hand. It is very acute, but if it can be tided over for a few days without a rupture a basis of peace acceptable to both sides
may come very suddenly. But to save the situation now, Japan must speak.
If, Tuesday, she has nothing to offer,
all is over.

WITTE NOW POWERLESS.

Witte, even if he would, is powerless to take a new step. His hands are tied. He now occupies the role of an imperial messenger who transmits his master's orders to Baron Ko-nura, and Baron Konura turns them
over to Tokio for the response.

The conference room has ceased to be a place for negotiations. It is simply the place where the Emperors of the warring countries exchange their communications by the hands of the envoys. And upon the principle of "indemnity" or "reimbursement" of
"fraude de guerre" under the disguise,
Emperor Nicholas has given the Japanese Emperor his last word.

"RUSSIA'S CONCESSIONS."
Witte accepts it as final, and in writing yesterday informed the Japanese plenipotentiaries that Russia would have nothing further to say upon this subject. Russia would cede half of Sakhalin and pay the cost of the maintenance of the Russian prisoners,
but that was all. Emperor Nicholas had given the same response to the President through Ambassador Meyer.

The Russians generally seem displeased with the situation. They believe that Japan has been diplomatically maneuvered into a corner from which, if she now persists in her attempt to exact tribute, with the alternative of a continuance of the war, she cannot extricate herself before the public opinion of the world.

THE SUMMING-UP.

Japan, here and in Europe, they say,
appealed for sympathy on the ground
that Russia had compelled her to take up arms to protect her life. The fortune of war had gone in her favor, and

"RACE SUICIDE" INQUIRY.

Chief Pidgeon of Massachusetts State
Census Bureau Asking Married Women Questions.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
BOSTON (Mass.) Aug. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As a supplementary part of the State census,
now being compiled, Chief Pidgeon
has undertaken to determine the facts about race suicide. Every married woman in the State will be asked questions by enumerators, calculated to show whether race suicide
is the actual, or merely the apparent outgrowth of present conditions.
Pidgeon has a theory that the average birth period is three years, and inquiry will be mainly directed to determine that point. Questions will be asked as to the age of women at marriage; the number of children
born, with dates and number of children borne by the mother and grandmother of the woman questioned.
The occupations of married women
will also be inquired into, to see if
this has any influence on the birth rate.

LABOR GALORE FOR THE CANAL.

CHAIRMAN SHONTS ANTICIPATES
NO TROUBLE THERE.

All Steam Shovels Laid off Until Railroad Tracks Have Been Put in Proper Condition for Their Use.
After Preliminaries are Arranged Dirt Will Fly.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

OYSTER BAY, Aug. 27.—Theo Shonts, chairman of the Isthmian Canal Commission, was a diner with the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, this evening. He came to talk over with the President some matters in connection with the canal work.

Chairman Shonts said, in response to inquiries about the resignation of Superintendent Prescott of the Panama Railway, that Prescott had resigned presumably because of strictures made upon his conduct of the road. He said Prescott had been succeeded by Baird of the Rock Island
system, who is now en route to Panama to assume his new duties.

Shonts said that the railroad tracks
have been put into proper condition for their use. I found when I was on the isthmus at least six steam shovels
out of which the operators were not getting to exceed 25 per cent of efficiency. That condition could not be allowed to go on, so we have ordered all steam shovel work discontinued for the present.

"We shall have no difficulty in getting all the labor we may want. The superintendent who has charge of that branch of the work has worked 75, 000 men on a single contract, and he says he could get 100,000 blacks for work on the canal, if so many were needed. The principal idea at present is to provide quarters for the employees; to establish good sanitary conditions, and to arrange for the prompt payment of the men. Once these preliminaries are arranged, we will begin to make the dirt fly."

HAS RESCUED CREW.

Atlantic Liner Maryland Picks up the Seamen of Norwegian Bark
F. C. Sieben.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
LONDON, Aug. 27.—[By Atlantic Cable.] When passing Lizard Head,
today, on her voyage from Baltimore
to London, the Atlantic liner steamer Maryland signaled that she had on board the crew of the Norwegian bark F. C. Sieben, which she rescued in mid-ocean. She reported that she fell in with the Sieben August 24, in lat. 49
deg. N., long. 20 deg. W. (about 600 miles west of Lizard Head), and took
the crew from their waterlogged vessel. Before it was abandoned, the hull was set on fire. When last seen the derelict was blazing fiercely.

The F. C. Sieben, in command of Capt. Knudsen, sailed from Conway, Wales, August 8, in ballast for Tangier, N. E., to load lumber for the United Kingdom. She was a wooden vessel of 670 tons, and was built in Germany in 1886, and was owned by
A. W. Olsen & Son of Norway.

WASHINGTON.

TEACHERS DOUBLED.

A Great Increase in Thirty Years.

Pedagogues Now Exceed the Number of Clergymen,
Lawyers and Doctors.

Proportion Has Increased in Every State and Territory
in a Decade.

But It is Still Less Than in England and Wales.
Mostly Women.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—The Census Bureau has just published as a bulletin an analysis by Prof. Walter F. Wilcox of Cornell University of the census of statistics relating to teachers. Calculating the school age as from 5 to 24,
the report finds that, taking the country as a whole, there is an average of one teacher to every 71 pupils, or 140 for every 10,000. The computation shows that the supply
of teachers in proportion to school population has more than doubled in the last 30 years, and that teachers
exceeded the total number of clergymen,
lawyers and physicians.

In 1900, Nevada had the largest proportional number of teachers; Vermont ranked second; Maine third and Iowa fourth. The proportion of teachers was smaller in some of the Southern States.

During the past decade, the proportion has increased in every State and Territory, the increase reaching a maximum in the State of Washington. The States of the North and West showed a greater increase than those of the South. The bulletin concludes:

"The proportion of teachers in continental United States is smaller than in England and Wales, but greater than in Germany, France, Italy, Canada, Mexico or Cuba, and in the following States the proportion is greater than in England and Wales:
Maine and New Hampshire, Vermont,
Connecticut, District of Columbia,
Ohio, Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Nevada, Washington, Oregon and California. During recent years, the proportion of teachers increased in this country to a greater extent than in England, France, Germany or Canada.

"The proportion of teachers in the cities having at least 25,000 inhabitants
is greater than in small cities or country districts. This condition, however, does not prevail in all divisions of the United States. In the North Atlantic and North Central divisions, the larger cities are not so well supplied with teachers as the smaller cities and country districts, a fact which suggests
the inference that where an effective
educational system is of recent growth,
it has developed more rapidly in the cities, but where it has been established for a generation or more, it has established a larger ratio of teachers
to population in the slowly-growing rural districts than in the rapidly-
growing cities."

"The immigrant population contains proportionately fewer teachers than the negro population. The children of immigrants, however, have engaged in teaching to such an extent that the proportion of teachers among adults of this class exceeds the proportion among white children and native parents."

"In continental United States, as in all countries for which figures were obtainable, the greater part of the teaching is done by women. The excess of female teachers over male is greater in this country than in any other."

"In the larger cities of every geographic division in continental United States, about four-fifths or 80 per cent.
of the teachers, were women, while in the country the percentage of women teachers varied from 59.5 in the South Central division to 77.2 in the North Atlantic division."

KREIGER VEREIN FEST.

JOLIET (Ill.) Aug. 27.—The national convention of the Kreiger Verein of America opened here to-

BOMB STORIES GAMBLERS.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—Forty or fifty gamblers, gathered round the card tables in the Tahoe Club on O'Farrell street, at 2 o'clock this morning, were startled out of their slumber by a loud report in the front portion of the premises, followed by the crash of shattering glass. A bomb had exploded, blowing a hole in the wall at one end of which swinging doors lead from the street, while at the other end are similar doors into the club room. The lookout man reassured the excited players, and there was no rush for the exits. The bomb, which consisted of oilcloth, paper, bound up with string and rubber bands, and along with which was a quantity of offensive material, had been placed just inside the street doors. Not much damage was done.

also was badly disturbed, and required all day to repair.
During the first part of the storm the high wind did some damage. The awning in front of Wakefield's wholesale house was torn down and the heavy plate-glass windows, valued at $500, smashed. Chimneys were blown from residence properties, and there were other slight property losses. The morning the body of Apollonia Mendes, a Mexican section hand, was found on the Santa Fe Railroad track a mile north of Phoenix, evidently killed by a train.
DUST BRINGS DARKNESS.
STORM DAMAGE AT PENDLETON.
PENDLETON (Or.) Aug. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A terrific dust storm visited Pendleton at 4 o'clock this afternoon, shrouding the city in darkness that objects at a distance of five feet could not be seen. Scalloping of the sky, blown down, cottages damaged and plate-glass windows fractured.
The damage is heavy. Merchandise in the city is covered to a depth of a quarter of an inch with dust. Harvested wheat in the country about Pendleton is destroyed.

This announcement, followed by the further one that an assured wage schedule has been reached between the miners and operators of what is known as District No. 10, including Tennessee and Kentucky, and which becomes effective next month with the same rate of pay last year, has excited much speculation and discussion in the other bituminous districts.

PRINCE AND HIS VESTALS.

"Prophet" and His Believers
March in Triumph.

Going to Liberia He Says,
With All His Virgins.

Howling Pickaninny Almost Breaks up the Show.

Prince Allen, the prophet, done quered the start of the triumphal march of the vestal virgins with which ceremony the "Church of the Living God" was to pack up its circus tent at Central avenue and Seventh street, last night, and stand away.

In the excitement, the Prince clean forgot to put on his crown, suffering in consequence much mortification and chagrin. He left it lying on the organ. He had to stop the parade and send for it. The crown is made of red near-plush with enormous spikes of gilt embroidery.

When the prophet got that cupola on top of his general's uniform, which was so stiff with gold lace it would stand alone, and his shiny sword in his hand, he had the vestals backed off the map.

The prophet-prince is an enormous shag-headed Texas buck of the cotton plantation with a mouth the shape of the horizon.

Last night he had a tent full of white

"Sisters, ah just got one thing to ask," he said nervously.

"SPREAD OUT, SISTERS."

"Ah just ask you all to march far apart as possible and spread out you trains. Try to show lak you was brought up somewhere and don't step on de train of de nex' lady ahead."

"Now, sisters, I never, and never couldn't sing if he wasn't 'traid to open his mouth."

Heaven! The prophet wasn't afraid.

First, at the head of the vestals, came the tall, resplendent figure of the prophet, the glimmer from his candle reflecting against his shiny sword.

Behind him was an enormous dandy with a little skull cap and a big cavalry saber. Then a number of nervous young negro bucks who didn't know about this vestal business.

VISION IN YELLOW.

The first bunch of jodelines was the prophet's wife in a beautiful bright yellow dress, the color of a canary. Her hands, which were each just the size of a glove, were encased in white cotton gloves; she held the candle in one, and the other she dangled in a manner of chaotic elegance. Down her broad yellow-bellied, trailing a bridal veil with a crown of imitation orange blossoms. She was a perfect dream. She weighed at least 200, and was black as a pirate's heart.

The train of the "yaller" dress was long enough to break up into two sections.

When she trilled out, she was "Mach'ing to Beautiful Zion," not a person in the house, but was for Zion if he had to go tourist.

Back of her came the plain home variety of vestals, in white caps, white gloves, and white dresses. One didn't have hardly any train, but she held herself back, so it trailed a good deal.

Perhaps the most gorgeous lady in the procession had no white dress and no candle, but she had an enormous scarlet girdle, embroidered with a scriptural quotation. She was rather

BICYCLE THEFT

THEIR BUSINESS.

SIXTEEN WHEELS STOLEN BY TWO YOUNG MEN.

Detectives Capture Thieves Who
Have Been Causing Wholesomen All
Over the City Great Annoyance
And Loss for Several Weeks—Privates Confess.

Wholesale bicycle theft, carried on by two youths not yet out of their teens, was brought to light yesterday morning by a capture made by Detectives Hawley and Murphy.

Louis Hiner of No. 913 Maple avenue, a lad only a little past 18 years of age, and William Hiedanowski, of No. 439 Centennial street, who is just 18 years old, are the two thieves.

They are now in the City Jail, and piled up in the corridors are sixteen high-grade bicycles, which the detectives gathered up from directions given by the boys after they had been arrested.

Eleven of the wheels were found at No. 913 Maple avenue; two were discovered at No. 439 Centennial street; two at Ninth and Sanlee streets, and the balance at various bicycle shops.

All were high-grade makes, and in some cases the boys had taken the wheels apart, evidently with the intention of disposing of them piecemeal.

On Saturday complaint was made of the disappearance of several bicycles, and the detectives discovered one of these at the room of one of the boys. They followed this lead until both boys were captured, and they confessed their operations, and directed the officers to the places where they would find the other wheels. The boys will be arraigned in the Police Court today.

CHILD ELOPEMENT.

Thirteen-Year-Old Girl Alleged to Have Run Away With a Laborer.

Mrs. Francisca Navarro, residing at No. 832 Maple avenue, is mourning the loss of her husband, Juan Navarro, a laborer, who she declares has eloped with thirteen-year-old Mariana Anchondo, a girl living at No. 738 Maple avenue.

Mrs. Navarro says her husband has been suspiciously attentive to the girl of late, and apparently his advances have not been repulsed. Yesterday during her absence from the house, she packed up his belongings with those of the girl, and when she returned, both had disappeared. She believes they have gone to San Diego and has asked the police to aid her in locating the missing pair.

Last night the mother of the girl called at police headquarters to complain of Navarro's taking her daughter away, suffering from a fever, and the police would catch them and punish both to the full extent of the law.

LYNCHING AT NEWBURN.

NEGRO MOORE'S SUDDEN END.

NEWBURN (N. C.) Aug. 27.—John Moore, a negro, 20 years of age, was taken from Craven county jail in this city, early today, and lynched by a mob of 100 masked men, armed with rifles and revolvers. With his hands tied behind his back, the negro was led out about a third of a mile from the jail to the draw of Neuse-River bridge, hanged to one of its braces, and his body riddled with bullets.

The mob attacked the jail between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning. Entrance to the jail was effected by forcing the jailer to surrender the keys. As soon as the attack was discovered, the naval reserves were called out to attempt to prevent the lynching. Crowds rushed to the bridge. Sheriff J. W. Biddle was quickly on the scene, pleading that Moore be left to the law, but his efforts were unavailing, and the mob carried out its plans.

Moore entered the country store of George Eubanks at Clark's, seven miles from Newburn, last Friday, when the proprietor's wife was alone in the store. The negro attempted robbery, and struck Mrs. Eubanks on the head with a meat ax, fracturing bones and inflicting serious injuries. Mrs. Eubanks screamed, and people came to her rescue. The negro fled, but was captured in a swamp after a chase of a few miles, and was placed in jail.

ALLEGED REAL CAUSE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

CHARLOTTE (N. C.) Aug. 27.—A special from Newburn says that the real cause of the lynching lay in the fact that at his preliminary hearing yesterday, Moore was found guilty of the small sum of $300. The deed was denounced from all the pulpits of the town today.

"BLIND PIGS" RAIDED.

Police Descend Upon Two Joints in Which Women Were Dispensing Various Intoxicants.

Two "blind pigs," of female persuasion, fat for the slaughter, were taken in by the police last night after having been under surveillance for several weeks.

Patrolmen Boyd and Allen led the raid in the early morning hours at Mrs. Mary Lehene, the proprietress of a "grocery" store at San Fernando and Wilhard streets, and Christine Bruich, of No. 629 New High street.

In a barred and darkened back room in the rear of Mrs. Lehene's grocery, the officers found the lady doing a rushing business in the wet goods line served up in tea cups for the benefit of ten men and one lone woman.

In the secret dive of Christine Bruich, reached with the greatest difficulty through a maze of alleys and back streets, the police found twenty drunken laborers drinking the last of twelve cases of beer.

In both instances the proprietresses of the places were taken in and the occupants, who were not too drunk to take care of themselves, were allowed to go to their homes.

The Bruich woman is one who figured sensationally in Police Court several weeks ago for assaulting and nearly killing a "stool pigeon" whom the police sent to her place to gather evidence. She was not "skidful" enough, and suspecting him, the woman pulled off a shoe and nearly brained him with it before the timely interference of the officers saved him from more serious injury.

BISHOP STARTS FOR HOLY SEE.

Fullest Day of Remarkably Busy Prelate.

He Dedicates a Chapel and Renames a Parish.

Heartfelt Godspeed Given to Bishop by People.

St. Rev. Thomas J. Conaty, bishop of the diocese of Monterey and Los Angeles, today is speeding his way across the continent, bound for New York, whence he will sail for Naples, in his route to Rome.

After an strenuous day as any church dignitary ever experienced in this country, this energetic man has begun a journey which of itself is a task, but in which he expects to find relaxation.

If Bishop Conaty found time yesterday to say his office, it must have been early morning until the Santa Fe overland pulled out of La Grande Station at 5 o'clock last night.

Early in the morning he made his first official visitation to the renamed parish of Our Lady of Loretto, and preached a sermon to a large congregation. He there was greeted by many personal friends, and found difficulty in getting away in time for his next appointment.

At the 11 o'clock mass at St. Vincent's Cathedral, Bishop Conaty preached another sermon. Here, as usual, the congregation filled the great body of the church, and listened with close attention to the last public message of their beloved spiritual administrator.

The bishop preached on the conversion of Paul, who afterwards became Paul, the apostle of Jesus Christ, and from his striking example drew practical lessons for the people of today.

He followed with an earnest exhortation to personal piety and Christian living, and spoke with such earnestness that many in the congregation were deeply moved.

Early in the afternoon, the bishop and a party of the clergy of the city went out to the new chapel of Very Rev. Dean M. M. Hartney, at Pasadena avenue and Avenue 19, Highland Park, and there dedicated "St. Martin's Chapel" as a public oratory.

Returning to the city, Bishop Conaty again gave audience to many friends, and was kept constantly engaged until just time to drive to the station for his train.

At La Grande Station he was given a royal enoche. Representatives of the Knights of Columbus, the various confraternities of St. Vincent de Paul, the Catholic benevolent societies, many priests of the city and vicinity, and a large gathering of personal friends, both Catholic and Protestant, had assembled.

For several minutes there was an informal exchange of greetings and good wishes for the journey, and as the train pulled out of the station the company cheered lustily as the bishop and his party waved their adieu.

Bishop Conaty was accompanied by his sister, Miss Katherine Conaty; his cousin, Miss Susan Lynch, and his niece, Miss Anna McDermott. They will go to their old home at Worcester, Mass.

At Worcester the bishop will join his brother, Rev. Bernard Conaty, rector of the Church of the Sacred Heart of that city, and the latter will proceed with the bishop on his journey to Rome.

On Tuesday, Rev. J. J. Clifford, rector of the Church of St. Thomas, the Apostle, Pico Heights, will leave for New York, where he will meet the bishop's party and accompany him to Rome, acting as the bishop's secretary.

They will sail on the steamer Cretic of the White Star line, September 25. They expect to be back in Los Angeles by Christmas. At Rome, Bishop Conaty will meet a party of Angeleños, including Mr. and Mrs. James C. Kays, Mr. and Mrs. Hampton, and others, and will arrange for them an audience with Pope Pius X.

BISHOP'S "LAST ACTS." Among the many "last acts" of Bishop Conaty before his departure from Los Angeles for his European journey was one of importance, yesterday morning, on his first official visitation to the new parish of St. Augustine.

This is the parish recently formed in the northwestern part of the city, and over which Rev. George Donahoe, former secretary to the bishop, was appointed pastor. Yesterday morning Bishop Conaty preached in the temporary chapel at Edgeware Road and Temple street, and changed the name of the chapel and parish to "Our Lady of Loretto." The pastor was originally from Loretto, and as there is a St. Augustine's at Ballona it was thought best to adopt the new name for the city parish.

SISTERS' NEW SANATORIUM. Another one of the last acts of Bishop Conaty before leaving on his visit to Rome was the arranging with the Sisters of Mercy for their opening of a new sanatorium or rest home for members of the various Catholic sisterhoods. This will be at Idyllwild, in the San Jacinto Mountains, and there they have taken two cottages. The Sisters of Mercy will send some of their number this week to open the new work.

CHAPEL OF ST. MARTIN'S. To accommodate the Catholics of Highland Park and Garvanza, Very Rev. Dean Hartney, who came recently from his labors of over thirty years as pastor and dean in Ohio, to spend his declining years in California, has included in his handsome new residence on Pasadena avenue and Avenue 19, a commodious chapel. This was opened yesterday as the Chapel of St. Martin's.

The dean's edifice consists of a large round tower, located on the corner, and adjacent rooms for home purposes and the needs of the people for a place of worship and church community gatherings. The building comprises eight rooms, a roof garden, and a chapel which will seat 100 people. Just

SIDE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY

Ge! I had so many funny experiences in the East I want to tell you about that I hardly know where to begin. I think the first fellow I bumped was a waiter at the Annex in Chicago (we stopped there two days en route.) I ordered some cantaloupe, a couple of eggs, rolls and coffee for breakfast; then I looked at the bill again and added, "And I guess you'd better bring me a portion of fly-specks."

The waiter threw his head up and his chest out and said: "We don't serve fly-specks in this hotel, young man."

"Well," said I, "you have them on the bill of fare." Chicago is a great city and all right, but Greater New York's still higher than the top of them. At first, but you soon get the habit. We had to go away up in hotel and lots of them; many of the New England manufacturers have their office there. You'll agree with me when you see our new Fall goods that we've got the sweetest bands of high-class novelties that ever came through the sagebrush. Lots of new suits and jackets and we've got ever so many of our new Fall hats in. Come in today if you can.

day to "say his office" it must have been early morning until the Santa Fe overland pulled out of La Grande Station at 5 o'clock last night.

Early in the morning he made his first official visitation to the renamed parish of Our Lady of Loretto, and preached a sermon to a large congregation. He there was greeted by many personal friends, and found difficulty in getting away in time for his next appointment.

At the 11 o'clock mass at St. Vincent's Cathedral, Bishop Conaty preached another sermon. Here, as usual, the congregation filled the great body of the church, and listened with close attention to the last public message of their beloved spiritual administrator.

The bishop preached on the conversion of Paul, who afterwards became Paul, the apostle of Jesus Christ, and from his striking example drew practical lessons for the people of today.

He followed with an earnest exhortation to personal piety and Christian living, and spoke with such earnestness that many in the congregation were deeply moved.

Early in the afternoon, the bishop and a party of the clergy of the city went out to the new chapel of Very Rev. Dean M. M. Hartney, at Pasadena avenue and Avenue 19, Highland Park, and there dedicated "St. Martin's Chapel" as a public oratory.

Returning to the city, Bishop Conaty again gave audience to many friends, and was kept constantly engaged until just time to drive to the station for his train.

At La Grande Station he was given a royal enoche. Representatives of the Knights of Columbus, the various confraternities of St. Vincent de Paul, the Catholic benevolent societies, many priests of the city and vicinity, and a

PERROTT IS MISSING FOUL PLAY FEARED.

ERROTT, formerly a member of the Iowa State Legislature, but for the past two years a resident of Los Angeles, living at No. 1144 East Thirty-ninth street, mysteriously disappeared from his home on the morning of August 19, and since that time neither his family nor his friends have heard anything from him.

His wife believes that he has met with foul play and fears that serious harm has befallen him. Her husband, she says, was a carpenter and worked prior to his disappearance with Contractor Nelson on the new building at No. 117 North Broadway. He was not a union man and had considerable trouble with walking delegates, who attempted to scare him off the work and threatened him at various times when he persisted in ignoring them and continuing with his business of making an honest living for his wife and family.

Perrott was 72 years old, weighed about 170 pounds, was five feet eleven inches in height, wore a gray beard. His hair was of the same color. He was dressed in a navy blue suit of clothes when he left home, ostensibly for work, and had on a blue shirt.

FLY CASTERS NOW IN ELEMENT NORTH AND SOUTH.
Splendid Day's Sport for a Party of Anglers at Seven Oaks—Knight's Good Luck in San Berdo Mountains—Fishing in Kern River Not So Good as Last Year.

With mountain streams subsided to minimum level, and settled weather everywhere, trout fishermen on vacation trips near and far are reporting some splendid spoils.
Earlier, turbulent floods of rainy snow water ruined the sport and put a premium on the plebeian worm, but in the present stages of clear creeks and warm weather, the Coachman, Silver Doctor, Professor and Grizzly King are once more killing lures, some better on one stream, others more favored of fish on another.

Los Angeles fly casters have traveled far for their sport this season, and the fingers of both hands would not serve to count all the local sportmen who have crossed the Oregon line in quest of the magnificent trout which abound in the brooks of that region. A returning enthusiast last week declared that any novice could catch fish in that country and that he, a green hand who had never before had even attempted to get a cast out without fouling all the adjacent trees, found no difficulty in landing all the trout ten hungry men could eat.

In that favored section huge Dolly Varden trout are encountered, often attaining a weight of five pounds, occasional specimens ranging considerably in excess of that figure. Rainbow, salmon trout and other varieties delight the angler until he fancies he has been transported suddenly to some piscatorial paradise.
Closer at home there are some grand trout to be had. In the wilder streams of the San Bernardino Mountains, one need not treat a mass of paltry singlers through fear of getting now uses was furnished him by the city. It has proven entirely satisfactory, and Chief Croker states that it would be impossible for him to obtain a similar amount of service with any number of horses. "There is no comparison," said he; "horses could not begin to do the work for a single day."

Chief Croker, besides being very enthusiastic over the auto for use in the fire department, is a past master in handling the wheel of a powerful all over. The tonneau had been removed, and a man stood up behind the driver's seat manipulating the controls. The machine stopped, and the driver stepped out. One arm was in a sling, but he had on a pair of fireman's service boots. It was Chief Croker, and he had driven his forty-horsepower Columbia car to the scene with one hand. The fire spectacle was forgotten by the crowd, and it paused to cheer the plucky head of the fire department whom nothing seems to daunt.

NEW YORK FIRE CHIEF AN ARDENT AUTOIST.

FIRE CHIEF EDWARD CROKER of New York was the first one in any of the fire departments of the United States to discard man's best friend for the motor car in answering alarms. More than two years ago the Fire Chief of the Borough of Manhattan used a small steam runabout, which was his own property, but this did not give him satisfaction, so he abandoned it and went back to his horse and buggy until last September, when the big red touring car which he

A crowd of several hundred persons stood looking at a fire which had just broken out on upper Broadway, New York, and about which the police lines had not yet been formed. Suddenly there was the clang of a big gun, and the snorting sound of an untripped gasoline engine. The crowd turned to look at a big automobile which was painted a glaring red

TALK ABOUT BILLY ROCHE.

FRISCO SPORTS STILL BUZZ OF HIS DECISION.
General Opinion is That Buddy Ryan Was All in and Claimed the Foul Against Gardner. But Save a Knockout—Many Think He Should Not Have Been Called Off.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—Sanwiched between the two bouts yesterday afternoon and evening there was found room for some little discussion of Friday night's battle. Referee Roche's mixed decision, declaring Gardner the winner and at the same time calling all bets off, came in for a deal of criticism, both favorable and otherwise. Betting men argued that Roche had no right to call bets off after giving the victory to Gardner. Their point was that if Gardner won, the bets should go with the victor, and precedent certainly is back of them in this claim. The other side took the stand that Roche's effort to protect the club was justified by the queer ending of the affair.

As to whether or not the fight was on the square there is practically no room for argument. If it had ended where it did with a clean knockout, and there had been no claim of foul made by Ryan, the crowd would have gone away voting it was one of the hardest and best battles ever fought around San Francisco. As it was, the sudden and most unexpected turn of affairs in the seventh round put the crowd "up in the air," and the men did not know what to think.

The general opinion is that Ryan knew he was "all in," and merely used the claim of foul to save himself from a knockout.

GRANEY FOR REFEREE.
LOOKS LIKE HIM NOW.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After two hours of talk tonight Managers Ertt and Nolan could not agree on a referee for the Britt-Nelson fight September 3, and at Manager Croft's suggestion a decision was postponed until tomorrow night. Britt wanted Jeff and Nolan favored George Siler. Finally Nolan offered to toss a coin to see which should be referee, but Britt refused this gambling chance. Britt said Jimmy had great respect for Siler's experience, but he objected to him because of Siler's severe criticism of him in his sporting articles. Nolan declared Jeffries knew the game, but lacked experience to make him a cool-headed referee. Finally, Croft tumbled in and suggested Eddie Graneley. He said no one could object to Graneley, and he advised both managers to consider him. Croft gave the men until tomorrow night to decide between Jeffries, Siler and Graneley.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After two hours of talk tonight Managers Ertt and Nolan could not agree on a referee for the Britt-Nelson fight September 3, and at Manager Croft's suggestion a decision was postponed until tomorrow night. Britt wanted Jeff and Nolan favored George Siler. Finally Nolan offered to toss a coin to see which should be referee, but Britt refused this gambling chance. Britt said Jimmy had great respect for Siler's experience, but he objected to him because of Siler's severe criticism of him in his sporting articles. Nolan declared Jeffries knew the game, but lacked experience to make him a cool-headed referee. Finally, Croft tumbled in and suggested Eddie Graneley. He said no one could object to Graneley, and he advised both managers to consider him. Croft gave the men until tomorrow night to decide between Jeffries, Siler and Graneley.

SAN FRANCISCO

AT THE CITY'S GATES.

EAST LOS ANGELES.

THERE is great interest in the East side in the project of the great spectacle-creator, Kiraity, and his associates to remove a part of the Exposition to a point near Eastlake Park and set up a permanent exhibit with many spectacular attractions. It is quite certain that the Huntington railroad people will take hold of the enterprise and that a series of great out-door fairs will usher in the exposition.

East Los Angeles is to have several new industries and is rapidly coming to the fore as a manufacturing section of importance. The East side poultry yard, comprising about two acres of ground, has been sold to a company of which M. Grand is the head, and the intention is to erect a national stone factory on the grounds. This is an important industry and a large number of men will be employed around the works.

Thieves entered the home of Mrs. Frank Garing of No. 115 South Avenue 11 on Monday afternoon and stole $1 and three valuable rings besides other articles of value.

Mrs. Nettie G. Allen of Pasadena avenue departed on Wednesday for Monrovia on a visit to friends.

Members of the Michigan Society will picnic on Thursday at Eastlake Park. Games have been arranged and lunch will be served under the trees.

Patrons of The Times in East Los Angeles not receiving a satisfactory delivery of The Times will please phone Mr. E. D. Hall, Times agent, Sunset Phone 460.

G. L. Cronshaw sells to G. H. Berding an unimproved lot on the northwest corner of Avenue 5 and Sixth street, lot 5641. Mr. Berding will improve with a 10-room residence to cost $7000.

BOYLE HEIGHTS.

Residents of this section will endeavor through the City Council to secure an appropriation for more street lights as they declare the several dark corners afford an excellent opportunity for the hold-up man. Lights will be asked for at the intersection of New Jersey and Cummings and for several points on Fourth street and along the intersections on St. Louis street north of First.

Miss Alice McLaughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McLaughlin of No. 2515 East Fourth street, and P. M. Connolly of Buena Vista, were married on Tuesday morning at St. Charles Catholic Church by Mr. Harrett. The ladies of the altar society of the church, of which the bride is a member, had charge of the decorations which were elaborate. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Garvey stood as sponsors for the young couple. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents.

The funeral of Charles Horgan was held on Tuesday morning from the residence of the young man's uncle, N. J. Donohoe of No. 925 Denver avenue. The deceased was only 39 years of age. He had many friends in Boyle Heights.

UNIVERSITY.

Preparation is being made for the opening term of the University of Southern California. Work on the additions to the main building has been retarded by a strike among the carpenters. Non-union men were found, however, and the workmen's hammers ring as loudly as ever, and there is every reason to believe that the buildings will be in such shape as to make possible the opening of school about the middle of next month. All of the buildings will be plastered, giving the appearance of a more massive structure. The concrete work of the front has been altered materially, and the front window of the chapel will be replaced with a memorial window of handsome proportions.

This thoroughfare now opens into the northwest section of the city. W. H. Kleinhaus has sold to L. B. Hawks an unimproved lot on the west side of Twenty-third street, 150 feet north of Washington street. The new owner will improve with a fine residence at once; consideration $1500.

Robert Watson has sold to W. B. Rober, through the Pico Heights Realty Company, lot 11, block 33, of the Electric Railway Homestead Association tract. This is the third lot north of Twelfth street on the west side of Harvard boulevard. Mr. Rober expects to improve with a six-room cottage.

HIGHLAND PARK.

Grading is in progress on Avenue 81, and the thoroughfare is plowed up between Marmon Way and Pasadena avenue. Other improvements will be made beyond Monte Vista street. Much work has been done on the streets of Highland Park this summer, and before the rains set in most of the important thoroughfares will be graded and curbed. The work on Avenue 81 is nearly completed, the street has been oiled. Sewers have been laid along Pasadena avenue from Avenue 82 to 86.

The fall term of the Free Methodist College at Hermosa will begin on September 12.

J. N. Moon is building a six-room cottage in the Hillside tract, 100 feet north of Pasadena avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Post, of No. 6215 Monte Vista street, returned on Wednesday from a trip to the San Bernardino Mountains.

Mr. Putney met with an accident while driving along Avenue 60 near Hayes street. His horses ran away, and Putney was thrown from the buggy and his wrist was broken. The horses stopped at the home of the owner without damaging the rig.

John C. Donnell, son of Maj. Donnell, of No. 6212 Pasadena avenue left on Wednesday for New York. He will be absent several weeks.

ONLY CHANCE OWENS RIVER.

What Water Commissioner Sherman Declares.

We Must Go Outside of Our Own Watershed.

Our Need Pressing and Now the Accepted Time.

Gen. M. H. Sherman of the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway Company has returned with his family from a pleasure tour of the country and reports that he had a good time and caught a fabulous number of trout in the Yellowstone.

Gen. Sherman is a member of the Los Angeles Water Board, and it is to him, as much as to any other man, that the city is indebted for the board's recognition of the practicality of the project for bringing the waters of Owens River to Los Angeles. He is enthusiastically interested in the project, because, as a water commissioner, he realizes more keenly than the average citizen the serious need that confronts the city and the difficulty of securing a sufficient supply from any other source.

"It seems a long way to go for water," said Gen. Sherman to a Times reporter, "but the city must have water at any cost, and there is no other supply large enough to meet the requirements, equally accessible. Water development in Southern California has about reached its limit. The total supply is determined by the rainfall of this watershed, and that is sufficient only to irrigate one acre in twenty. We must get a little more water for the city by pumping here and there, but whatever quantity we might obtain that way would be taken away from somebody else who is now using it. What we pump from underground is just so much subtracted from the flow of streams and canals, and such makeshifts only injure the city by retarding the growth of the surrounding country.

It is absolutely necessary to go outside of our own watershed to get more water, and Owens Valley has the extended to the city limits west of Arlington street.

To avoid the inconvenience of the flood waters which during the heavy rains have made a swamp of the district adjoining the intersection of Vermont avenue and West Washington street, a cement drain has been built across the intersection.

Condulfs for the Sunset Telephone Company will be laid along Vermont avenue south to Jefferson street. Much of the street has been opened and the subway will be completed by the end of this week.

George H. Rector has sold to H. I. Nance an unimproved lot on the north side of Washington street, 250 feet west of Cherry street. The property is $2175 and is purchased for an investment. The consideration stated is $600.

Rev. Joseph Tettemer of St. Louis and his brother, Rev. F. Tettemer, pastor of the St. Agnes Catholic Church. These clergymen were called to Los Angeles by the serious illness of their mother, who is at the Sisters' Home Margaret McGinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGinn of 2734 Kenwood avenue, and William Stewart were married in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart have returned to Los Angeles and have apartments at the Rowan.

Ex-Judge Ansel Smith, formerly of Stockton, has removed with his family to Los Angeles and will reside on Garland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Reid and two daughters, Ruth and Emma, have returned from an extended journey through the East. At Jackson, Mich., they attended a family reunion at the home of Mr. Reid's father, where twenty-two of the family were present. They returned home by way of Portland. A brother, George, was paying travel in the Central Bank, will remain in Jackson during September.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas J. McCoy of Ninth street and Westlake avenue have gone to Portland. They were accompanied by Miss Ethel McCoy and Miss Mamie Volgt of No. 625 Westlake avenue.

The engagement of Miss Ethel Kennedy of West 21st street to the Pacific garage is announced. The wedding will take place some time in the fall.

FACE OF GOETZ SADLY MUSSUED.

ATTEMPTED TO STEAL RIDE ON AUTOMOBILE TALLYHO.

Frightened Sports Thought He Was One of Their Number and Hurried Him to the Receiving Hospital—Good Imitation of Dead Man.

Full of an assortment of the products which he is accustomed daily to serve over the bar of the saloon at No. 542 Maple avenue, Harry Goetz attempted to steal a ride on the Panhard-Lavormer tallyho of the Pacific garage as the big machine whirled up Spring street from Sixth at a twenty-mile clip early last evening.

Goetz managed to swing up to the rear step of the car, which was full of an excited crowd of local sports returning from a day spent at Santa Monica. Wobbling unsteadily on his foothold he essayed to climb the ladder to the seats on top of the omnibus, but as H. H. Poor, of the White Garage, who was driving, averted quickly to one side to avoid a horse and buggy, Goetz' uncertain hold slipped, and he was dashed headlong to the pavement.

One of the party saw him fall and stopped the car. The frightened chauffeurs rushed back and lifting the senseless body of the prostrate man, again strove to get him to the receiving hospital. So badly were they rattled that it was not until they had carried Goetz into the house and deposited him on the operating table that they discovered he was not one of their party, but merely a stranger stealing a ride.

Although he gave a very good imitation of a dead man when he was carried into the hospital, an examination by the surgeons showed that Goetz' injuries did not extend beyond a badly muscled face which looked as though a freight train had passed over it.

Imitable "Bob" Burdette.

Agile readers of The Times may enjoy the quaint humor in the writings of this famous newspaper paragrapher, lecturer and preacher. Mr. Burdette will write one of his inimitable letters for The Times each Sunday during his journey.

who was working on a hay baler in the Hollenbeck Hills, was last seen about 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon on his way home, accompanied by his dog. The dog arrived home about 7 o'clock in the evening, but nothing has been seen or heard of the boy.

The temperature today has broke the record for the season, 106 deg. in the shade at noon.

Then What Did Mother Do?

A Chicago mother was trying to get her little boy to go to bed. "Run along Johnny," she said, "and get into your bed. The little chickens have all gone to bed."

"Yes, mother, I know," said the little tot with a quivering lip; "but the old hen went to bed with 'em."

First of all, read the paper carefully, so as to become familiar with the conditions of the contest. It may be easy for you to solve the problem, but there is nothing like being early in the field.

Some features in the contest make it appear very easy, while others will require some time and study. In writing sketches of a large number of business houses, without mentioning any name, it may appear easy enough to name them from the description or the peculiarity of each. That is true,

But it must be borne in mind that among so many business firms, no matter how prominent and well known to almost everybody, there must be some similarity between dealers in the same line of goods and in almost the same locality. When you are in doubt

Do not forget that, while your reply should be in as early as possible, to be accurate, or as near correct as you can make it, is more essential than speed.

It is not such a difficult problem to discern a prominent business house from the descriptions given of it, though the name be omitted. But it requires some thought and study. Do not be carried away by the idea that you alone are posted on the leading business houses in Los Angeles. You

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Early Morning Fire.

A one-story vacant frame house at Fifth and Weidman streets, the owner of which is unknown, was discovered to be on fire yesterday morning at 5 o'clock. The flames were extinguished with only $200 worth of damage.

Dr. Quint's Return.

Dr. Sumner J. Quint, police surgeon, has returned with his wife and family from a two weeks' tour in the Santa Cruz Mountains, where not a single emergency case penetrated during the time of their stay.

Kicked by a Horse.

D. W. Dunham of No. 988 Temple street was kicked by his horse yesterday morning and seriously injured. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital. Later he was removed to the Good Samaritan Hospital.

Descriptive Musical Composition.

The first rendering of a new musical number by Paul de Longpre, entitled "The Tale of the Mill," was given at the Chutes yesterday afternoon by the Donatelli Band. The piece is brightly set for the various instruments, and aptly illustrates the subject it is intended to describe.

Noisy Mexicans Subdued.

Officer Glenn yesterday afternoon gathered in a crowd of Mexicans who were having a jamboree at the intersection of 12th and Main streets. The crowd, where they were given a lecture on the proprieties and then dismissed. Didn't Give Him Time.

Maj. M. Bennett, a book agent boarding at No. 781 Coronado avenue, leaving a note in which he said he was tired of living, turned on the gas last night, but was overhauled before he had passed the first station on the out-bound trail, and taken to the Receiving Hospital to sleep off his attempted suicide.

Breaker for New Tent.

The recently installed Hebrew tent of the Macabees, Star Tent, will have a smoker and entertainment this evening at Caledonia Hall, No. 119 1/2 South Spring street. A contest has been in progress for the securing of charter members, and this will close this evening. There are now sixty-three knights of the Macabees in this tent. It was organized by S. Handelsman, deputy supreme commander, and the following officers have been installed: Past Commander, S. Becker; commander, A. Josephson; record keeper, Louis Lazare; chaplain, A. Cohen; sergeant, S. Rosenberg.

Not So Tragic.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. Orpessa of No. 149 North Rio street indulged in a little family disagreement about 8 o'clock last night, which was responsible for the neighbors telephoning to the police headquarters that Orpessa had struck his wife as the culmination of a row and had killed her. They declared that they could see the dead body of the woman through the windows, but dared not go into the house to investigate while the husband remained. What the police found on their arrival was nothing more tragic than a woman just recovering from a faint, who vigorously declared that the report of her death "had been much exaggerated," and further insisted that the neighbors were meddlesome busy-bodies, as she and her husband had had no trouble at all.

Unlucky Steifes.

P. Steifes, a carpenter residing at No. 1621 West First street, was struck by an inbound San Pedro car of the Interurban line at Fifty-seventh and Manchester streets early last evening and suffered a compound fracture of the left leg and a broken nose, besides a number of painful bruises and cuts. Accompanied by his four children and Pius Kohler, Steifes was returning from a picnic of the St. Joseph Society, of which he is secretary. As the car approached their crossing, Steifes stepped forward to signal the motorist to stop, and, falling to step back quickly enough, the front hand rail struck him in the face and buried him to the ground. His wife and children were taken aboard the car and the injured man was sent to the Receiving Hospital, where his injuries were dressed.

Pushed Off His Box.

A union jawsmith who is wont to gather a small crowd of malcontents to whom he pours out his troubles, was dejected last night and barely escaped a rough handling by a crowd of indignant workmen. The walking delegate undertook to address a respectable crowd of laboring men gathered at the corner of Fifth and Los Angeles streets. To give color to his crazy utterances the fellow tried to mix religious teachings with his political. The crowd refused to stand his nonsense and began to hoot the fellow as he told of what unionism enforced would mean for Los Angeles. "Shut up," said a man in the crowd. "We don't want that rot. We don't want this place to be a second San Francisco." Because the man persisted in his harangue he was pushed off his dry goods box platform and hustled off down the street amid the jeers of the crowd.

Cutting down stocks by cutting down prices. This is the season when everyone expects bargains of an extraordinary nature, and those who visit the store that is "Just over the line from HIGH rents and HIGH prices" will not be disappointed.

Beds Worth $10 to $22
Now Only $5 to $14

These are fine solid oak beds—most of them of quarter-sawn oak and hand polished. They are odd beds from suits where the dresser and commodore have been sold. Beds are actually worth from $10 to $22 each, but to effect an immediate clearing of the odd lines, we have marked them practically half price—$5 to $14.

$3.50 Corner Chairs $2.50

By mistake we duplicated an order for these, giving us double the order we wanted. Price reduced a dollar to cut down stock. They are handsomely designed, finished in mahogany and beautifully upholstered in plush and figured tapestry. Extra values at $2.50 instead of $3.50.

Large Rugs Reduced

Artistic cover-fiber rugs for the dining-room or the bedroom at only reduced prices. The designs are all new and the color scheme extremely captivating.
